

It is the policy of Pro-Active Futures to maintain procedural and physical safeguards on the gathering and retention (pursuant to SEC Rule Section 17a-4 of "nonpublic personal information" defined as "personally identifiable financial information" which information is obtained from you in the New Account Form. Clients will receive Privacy Policy Statements from the Pro-Active Futures clearing firms. It is the policy of Pro-Active Futures not to disseminate or transfer in any way any information from any client except for what is necessary for clearance of trades in exchange for compensation. We do not disclose any nonpublic personal information about our customers or our former customers to anyone, except as permitted by law. We restrict access to nonpublic personal information about you to those employees who need to know that information to provide products or services to you. If the firm determines in the future to adopt a different policy utilizing client information for commercial purposes then we shall provide any clients the opportunity to "opt out" for any such program. Last updated: June, 20, 2009